English

Réseau Alpha does not currently organize its own French courses, but rather provides a mapping of where to find French courses in Paris and its surrounding areas (Ile-de-France region). To find courses in your area, you should:

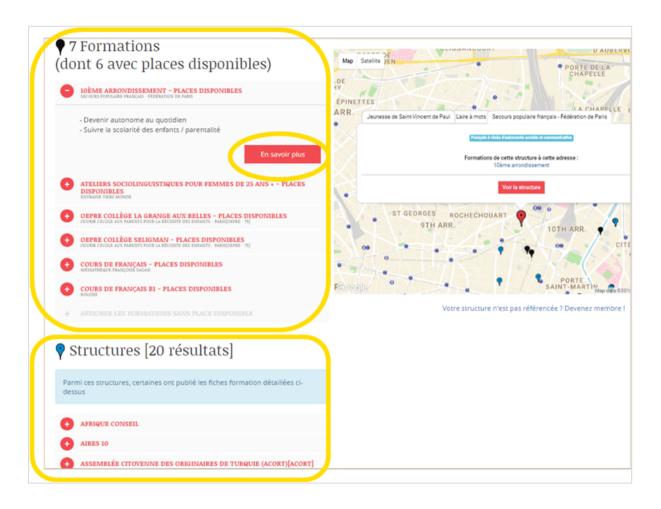

- 1) Go on the web page http://reseau-alpha.org/trouver-une-formation
- 2) Click on "Affiner la recherche" (= refine the search)

3) Enter your post code, why you are learning French (for your day to day life, or to get a job). You can also add the level you want to reach, and when you are available... and click on "Trouver" (=find)

- 4) The results are displayed:
  - the "Formations" link to pages with detailed courses
  - the "Structures" link to pages of the different places providing French courses. To find the phone number or the address, click on a "formation" or a "structure" and then click on "En savoir plus".

5) On the page of the "formation" or the "structure" you can find information. The phone number or the email, to ask for more information or register, are indicated by those icons:

6) To get more results, you can change your criteria (availabilities, level of French, post code...).

If you need further help using the website, feel free to contact us.

Best regards,
